Transforming Care Partnerships: Ensuring an appropriately skilled workforce and Learning Needs Analysis

One Day Workshop

Skills for Health is pleased to support the Transforming Care Partnerships. We are working in partnership with Health Education England working across London and the South East to meet the development needs of their workforce.

This workshop will be suitable for staff who work in Learning & Development teams, HR or who manage service delivery and who need to determine the learning needs of their staff and identify suitable learning provision

The workshop will be held at Skills for Health Ltd, 9th Floor, Lynton House, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9LT

From 10 am to 4 pm

Thursday 15 June

Wednesday 12 July

The programme will cover a comprehensive approach to good practice in undertaking Learning Needs within an organisation and will introduce an online tool to facilitate this process. The tool and audit process is simple to deliver and provides valuable benchmarked feedback to employers.

Objectives

After attending the workshop you will

- Understand what is good practice in relation to Learning Needs Analysis
- Understand how using the Learning Needs Analysis Tool can support the workforce planning process and staff development within your organisation
- Understand how to populate the online Learning Needs Analysis Tool
- Understand how to analyse the outputs from the Learning Needs Analysis Tool
- Understand how to act as an administrator of the Learning Needs Analysis Tool
- Be able to use the Learning Needs Analysis Tool within your organisation and share your knowledge with your colleagues

Please confirm your attendance by email to Genevieve.Algie@hee.nhs.uk by Friday 26 May, 2017
