HERE I AM

Verse 1

I left school, only fifteen
Got a job 2 bob a week
I first saw you at the church dance
You swept me off my feet it was surely romance

We settled down and bought our first home
Was so exciting going into the unknown
And then we heard the sound of tiny feet
Before we knew it
We were complete

Pre

These fading memories
They're still a part of me
And I'll face the future with smile

CHORUS

I know what you're thinking
When you're looking at me
Open your eyes
I've got wings, now I'm free
Got sisters and brothers
No longer 16
No time to restart
There's no stopping me
Time's moving on, it slips through our hands
Still young at heart
So here I am
So here I am
So here I am

Verse 2

Inside this soul a young person dwells
Now and again my bruised heart swells
Bring on the joy & ignore the pain
I'm living life to the fullest again

What happened to the years all gone too fast?
Tried to hold on, but nothing can last
So open up your eyes to-the person you see
I'm not a stranger anymore, this is me

Pre

These fading memories
They're no longer part of me
But I'll face the future with smile
